

QT only has comments in one area at this stage:

Clever Networks Q8-12 examine targeted services for funding. QT believes that eligibility for funding under the Clever Networks (or other programs for that matter) should not be restricted to health, education, emergency services and local government services. Any initiative (from any sector) which can deliver improved access to online services directly or indirectly (eg by facilitating Broadband Connect initiatives) should be considered on its merits.